

The EY-Insurity Alliance

Simplifying the insurance experience with intuitive innovation

Why the EY-Insurity Alliance

- ▶ Through the alliance, clients experience Insurity's modern software products collectively with EY teams' proven track record of delivery success and transformational consulting capabilities to drive sustainable growth and predictable delivery at scale.
- ▶ The EY organization is well-established in assisting insurers with resolving key business and technical challenges related to core underwriting, policy administration, claims, billing, user interface (UI), customer experience (CX) and analytics transformations.
- ▶ Through our integrated delivery model, Insurity's professional services complement the EY organization's delivery knowledge to help deliver exceptional value in supporting property and casualty (P&C) insurers, brokers and managing general agents (MGAs).
- ▶ The EY organization and Insurity have a long-standing relationship. Through this relationship, we adapt the delivery methodology to help clients achieve predictable delivery and take advantage of the Insurity product release cycle.
- ▶ The EY-Insurity Alliance facilitates the EY organization to invest in differentiating and complementary accelerators that align with Insurity's product strategy.

What we do together

- ▶ Insurity provides cloud-based solutions for P&C insurance carriers, including 15 of the top 24 P&C insurers, bringing to the market configurable, scalable and flexible policy, claims, billing, reporting and analytics solutions. Insurity's feature-rich digital platforms and analytics products deliver exceptional value to clients.
- ▶ The EY organization has completed over 200 core systems transformations over the past decade, powered by a proven and robust delivery methodology and dedicated insurance professionals. EY professionals combine the right business and technical acumen to help clients transform their businesses.
- ▶ Insurity recognizes the EY organization as a leading system integrator alliance partner. EY teams bring a robust professional services organization to the partnership with professionals across the US, Philippines and India that have an average of more than 10 years of Insurity experience. Before deployment on client engagements, 100% of EY practitioners complete a Policy Decisions Evolution certification program, including over 200 hours of core platform training.
- ▶ Together, the EY organization and Insurity bring clients the right industry knowledge, system implementation experience and digital insurance software solutions to help clients transform their business and thrive in the digital age.
